MINUTE ENTRY

The Court has received and considered Petitioner's Motion for Clarification, filed February 27, 2013 (the "Motion"). In the Motion, Petitioner desires to take the parties' minor child, Justin (the "Child"), to Sea World during the Child's Spring Break. The portion of Spring Break in question is Petitioner's parenting time.

The Court's decree is clear and unambiguous. There is no need for clarification. However, the Court has no objection, in the abstract, to the Child going to Sea World in California with Petitioner despite the fact that Petitioner gave Respondent only 14 days advance notice this time only. However, Respondent deserves to have an opportunity to identify why she opposes allowing the Child to go on this trip. Furthermore, this is the sort of issue that the parties should resolve with the assistance of the Parenting Coordinator, or through mediation or ADR. No effort has been made to do so, based on a review of the record.

Good cause not appearing,

IT IS ORDERED denying the Motion for Clarification, subject to the qualification that, for this time only, the Court is willing to approve the trip based on 14 days advance notice, provided that Petitioner initiates proceedings with the Parenting Coordinator. If, after Respondent has an opportunity to be heard, the Parenting Coordinator believes that this trip is in the best interests of the Child, the Court is willing to waive this advance notice requirement this time only.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED signing this minute entry as a formal order of this Court pursuant to Rule 81, Arizona Rules of Family Law Procedure.
